

Overall, service utilization remained steady over the seven months analyzed. MH services constituted 89.6% of service utilization. SUD services make up 10.4% of service utilization. The SUD service array includes several residential services, that, overall, serves a fewer number of individuals than non-residential services. Detox services are also included in the SUD service array. The MH service array consists of primarily non-residential services with the exception of Psych Res Rehab. The MH service array also includes inpatient and crisis stabilization services.